

Did you know...

- ♥ The Libin Cardiovascular Institute is the tertiary referral centre for Southern Alberta, parts of Saskatchewan and British Columbia serving a population of more than 1.6 million people.
- ♥ The Division of Cardiology within the Libin Cardiovascular Institute of Alberta is comprised of both academic and private physicians. Calgary is home to the largest private practice cardiology group in Canada.
- ♥ The Calgary Health Region is the first regionally integrated program with a single department of Cardiac Sciences bringing Cardiac Surgery and Cardiology together in clinical care, research and education.
- ♥ Members of The Libin Cardiovascular Institute of Alberta published 228 peer reviewed research reports in 2006.
- ♥ Member Research Funding totaled $12.943 Million in 2006.
- ♥ Currently there are 10 Cardiology Fellows, 2 CV Surgery Fellows, and 7 Subspecialty Fellows enrolled in training programs within the Libin Cardiovascular Institute of Alberta.

There are 148 full members and 13 associate members within The Libin Cardiovascular Institute of Alberta.

THESE MEMBERS REPRESENT THE DEPARTMENTS OF:

Cardiac Sciences
 Biochemistry & Molecular Biology
 Surgery
 Community Health Sciences
 Critical Care
 Physiology and Biophysics
 Pathology
 Biomedical Engineering
 Kinesiology
 Veterinary Medicine
 Neurosciences
 Medical Genetics
 Paediatrics

The Libin Cardiovascular Institute of Alberta has the

- ♥ lowest post-MI mortality rate in Canada
- ♥ lowest post-PTCA mortality in Canada
- ♥ third lowest post-CABG mortality rate in Canada
- ♥ lowest post-CABG mortality rate in Alberta

Calgary's population grew to more than 1 million people in 2007

